Without the main courses won't satisfy hungry men. In the same way, men who hunger for OVERCOAT VALUES won't buy style unless worthy fabric goes with it—style alone will make them look but it won't "LOOSE" their purse-strings.

In the T. L. Cely Co. Balmaroon O'Coats which are selling at $8.50, $10.00 and $12.50 men get fabrics which are cream of the lines of the foremost mills, in durability, texture, pattern and values.

THE POPULAR JEWEL STEEL RANGE Is Low in Price But High in Quality
Almost every low-priced steel range is made with light-weight steel walls, painted with Japan to hide its defects; but not so with the Popular Jewel steel range. In fact all Jewel steel ranges are made honestly, and sold on merit rather than deception. The low price of a Popular Jewel Steel Range is due to smaller size and not having as many ornamental parts or castings; but for durability, quick baking, fuel economy, and convenience, it will compare favorably with the higher-priced ranges.
The walls are made from heavy blue planished steel, double and asbestos lined. Rivets are hand driven. Fire-box is large and roomy and fitted with duplex grate. Top plates are trussed to prevent cracking. Oven is full size and a perfect baker. Can be furnished with or without reservoir. The high closet offers a roomy receptacle for warming dishes. Handsomely nickel-plated parts adorn the oven doors, feed door, cleanout door, big closet and brackets, tea shelves and guard rail. For small-sized families, or for kitchens found in city homes and apartments, this range is especially adapted, and will give the best of satisfaction. This range is much better value than the high-priced range offered by catalog houses. Call and learn our very low prices on these ranges. They will surprise you.

MEETING DELEGATION WILL BE HELD DEC. 11

CERTAIN LEGISLATIVE MEASURES WILL BE DISCUSSED ON THAT DATE

SUPT. SWEARINGEN WILL BE PRESENT

Letter to Supt. Felton States That He Wishes to Appear Before Delegation on Dec. 11.

Senator J. L. Sherard stated yesterday that he would call a meeting of the county delegation to be held on Saturday morning, December 11, at 10 o'clock. This meeting will be held instead of the one which was to have been held during the first part of January, and everyone is invited to attend.

The action of Senator Sherard is the result of a letter received yesterday by Mr. J. B. Felton, county superintendent of education, from Mr. J. D. Swearingen, state superintendent. Mr. Swearingen states that he wants to appear before the county delegation to discuss certain questions pertaining to the interest of education in Anderson county as well as the state. He wants to meet with the Anderson County Teachers association also and since this date, December 11, is the regular day for the monthly meeting, he states that he will be in Anderson on that day.

Sometime ago Senator Sherard stated that he would call a meeting of the delegation to be held the first part of next year, at which time all of those who wished to suggest or discuss certain legislative measures, would be invited to be present. Since Mr. Swearingen will be in Anderson on December 11, to appear before the delegation, the public meeting will then be held.

Some of the questions which Mr. Swearingen wishes to discuss before the delegates are the following:

1. State appropriations to the public schools.
2. The high school situation in Anderson county.
3. The organization of the county superintendent's office.
4. A half mill tax to supply a county board fund.
5. Any other matters that the county superintendent wishes to be brought up.

A Whale of a Man.
It is announced that Andrew Carnegie is now worth only $20,000,000. "Only" sounds strangely in such a connection; it is perhaps better to say that there now remains to him only a little over 5 per cent of his original fortune. His donations have amounted to more than $50,000,000. His boast that he was going to die poor is apparently not going to be so ridiculous in the end.

Any man who has made $370,000,000 is entitled to distinction, even in the home of millionaires. Any man who has given away $350,000,000 is entitled to greater distinction. But the Laird of Skibo emerges doubly first from the ranks of mere millionaires, which many have done, and again from the ranks of mere philanthropists, wherein he is almost alone. Carnegie has been sharply criticised both in the manner in which he made his money and for the manner in which he has given it away. Many people have considered the greater good he might have done in some other way but few have given him credit for the infinite harm that he did not do. The potency for evil of $250,000,000 is inconceivably great; the man who can disembarass himself of that sum without doing the country any more danger than the man who can make it in the first place.

Andrew Carnegie has proved himself bigger than $370,000,000—a whale of a man.—Greensboro News.

Is It Possible.
A number of local Grand Army veterans were having a reunion, and were entertaining brother members from a neighboring state. Some of the visiting veterans protested against certain proposed legislation by the state assembly.

One of the speakers became so vehement in his remarks and painted the situation so despairingly that an earnest auditor, overwhelmed by the oratory, jumped to his feet and cried excitedly:

"Comrades, is it possible that we died in vain?"—Everybody's.

ONE CASE MISTRIAL; ANOTHER NOT GUILTY

LEE BROWN WAS ACQUITTED BY JURY YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

COULD NOT AGREE

In the Eugene Hutchinson Case and Mistrial Accordingly Ordered—Others Not Pressed.

One of the city's whiskey cases was disposed of yesterday and the other resulted in a mistrial. The first one was against Eugene Hutchinson and was called at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, resulting in a mistrial. The second one was against Lee Brown and it was called yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This case resulted in an acquittal for the defendant.

Mr. A. H. Dagnall represented the defendant in the Hutchinson case and the city was represented by Mr. G. Cullen Sullivan. The jury was as follows: D. S. Vandiver, foreman; J. W. Cochran, I. L. Terry, O. D. Drake, Robt. Dodd and W. A. Holder. After being out for a few minutes the jury stated that they could not agree and that there was no chance of them coming to a verdict. A mistrial was accordingly ordered.

Lee Brown was also represented by Mr. Dagnall and in this case Mr. Sullivan also represented the city. The jury was as follows: W. D. McLean, foreman; R. W. Tribble, Raymond Leaty, N. C. Burries, Louis Ledbetter and T. E. Smith. After being out for a few minutes they returned a verdict of not guilty.

In another column of The Intelligencer will be found a statement from Mr. Cullen Sullivan to the effect that the other remaining cases will go not pressed.

SUTHERLAND CASE AGAIN

Verdict of Not Guilty in Magistrate's Court Monday.

On August 25th, 1915, Mr. Walter Sutherland was arrested, tried and convicted of "not having paid his poll tax within the time prescribed by law." From the judgment of the magistrate's court he appealed to the court of general sessions. The case was argued before Judge Moore, who, after arguments, reversed the judgment of the lower court and dismissed the case.

The facts of the case appear to be as follows: Mr. Sutherland had been in North Carolina at the time within which taxes are paid without penalty, but he arrived in Anderson on the tax paying time had expired. Upon arrival he went to the treasurer's office and offered to pay his taxes with the penalties and he was told that the matter was in the sheriff's hands; he was directed then to pay the money to the tax collecting officer, which he did under protest in accordance with the law on June 14th, 1915. The amount paid was $8.00, but Mr. Sutherland thought it excessive as the original tax was but a dollar. He thereupon brought suit for the recovery of the excess on the 7th of June, 1915. On August 25th, 1915, the $8.00 in question were returned to Mr. Sutherland, who received the money unwillingly, and on the same day arrested and tried as aforesaid. On last Monday Mr. Sutherland was arrested by virtue of a new warrant, for failing and refusing to pay his poll tax within the time prescribed by law. The case was heard before G. H. Geiger, esq., magistrate, and resulted in a verdict of not guilty.

Mr. Sutherland was represented by Mr. E. A. I. Rosenberg, and the county by Mr. J. S. Acker.

The Woe Spirit.
A fat "colored mammy" of the "old school" was hauled into court for throwing her washing board at her neighbors' husband, says Case and Comment.

"Did you strike this man with a washboard?" Judge Broyles asked. "I spec' I did, yo' honnah."

"What was the provocation?" "We wuz discussin' wuh judge."

"Well, go on."

"We wuz talkin' 'bout dem Germans, an' John Bulls and Frenchmens, and he done said I was nuthin', yo' honnah. I ain't wintin' to let no nigger call me dat."

What He Was Doing.
Judge—You say that this last dog bit you. Will you relate to the court just what you were doing when that event took place?

Book agent—Your honor, I was covering territory.—Pennysylvania Punch Bowl.

Not Cause for Noise.
A Scotch minister, while going home one dark night, fell into a deep hole. Unable to get out, he shouted lustily, and at last a laborer heard him and came to his assistance. The minister told him how he had gotten there and who he was, whereupon the rescuer remarked:

"Weel, weel, ye needna' kick up such a rumpus. Ye'll no be needed before Sunday, and this is only Wednesday night."—Boston Transcript.

ANNOUNCEMENT

In retiring from active business—and especially from the business with which I have been so long associated—there are a thousand and one things that I would love to say. For more than fifty years I have been before the good people of this good town and county and state, and have enjoyed their confidence. For this, above all things else in this connection, I feel truly grateful. Looking back over the years—fleeting enough now—I recall the most pleasant years of my life, friendships closely cemented in transaction of business through seasons of prosperity and through seasons of adversity. Connections thus formed with manufacturers and dealers, with their traveling representatives and with our own trade we will ever cherish.

So of course, it is with reluctance that I make this announcement. But friends, fifty years is a long time and I have been pegging away now for fifty years! My health is not as good as it used to be. My family and my physician tells me that it is best that I retire and I am going to take their advice.

The young men who will succeed the C. A. Reed Piano & Organ company, Messrs. John M. Reese and Clyde A. Welch, trading as the Reese-Welch Piano Co., are both men of known business integrity and I feel sure will take care of the business of which I feel so proud, and it affords me pleasure to commend them to the friends and customers of the old company. Mr. Reese has been with me for twenty years and is perfectly familiar with the business, as is also Mr. Welch who has had charge of our office and collecting department for past four or five years.

And further, I do not mean, in retiring from active business, to drop out of sight altogether. I will maintain an office in the store here and will be glad to see my old friends at any time.

With my most hearty thanks and best wishes for all old friends and customers wherever they may be,

I am, truly yours,

C. A. REED, President,
C. A. Reed Piano & Organ Co.
